FROZEN STORYTIME WITH QUEEN ELSA

Tuesday, July 7th 10:30 AM

Become one with the wind and sky in this magical storytime, featuring Queen Elsa herself! We will sing and dance to Frozen-themed songs, enjoy a book read by Elsa, and you will even have some time to ask questions to everyone's favorite queen of ice. The event is 30 minutes, so make sure you join the webinar on time! This event will occur live via zoom.

VIRTUAL MOCK SAT/ACT EXAM (FOR AGES 13-17 ONLY)

BUILDING RESILIENCE

Wednesday, July 8th 7 PM

In this webinar, you will learn research-based techniques that help you build resilience, navigate setbacks, and identify your purpose. Drawing on the latest research in neuroscience and psychology, the aim is for you to find solid footing when you are feeling overwhelmed and to give you a way to find the strength to bounce back. Presenter: Antoine de Morrée. PhD is an Instructor in Neuroscience and Stem Cell Biology at Stanford University. Registration is required.

SAT/ACT exam is given to high school students for their college applications. Students will be given an option on which exam they'd like to take. You must logged by 8:45 am and video must be turned on. This is to simulate what it is like to take the actual test. Registration is required.
