BALANCING WORKING FROM HOME AND VIRTUAL LEARNING DURING COVID

Monday, October 19
7 PM

School is underway but not everything has settled into place. Now is the time to think through your family's systems and get organized. In this webinar, you'll learn tools for balancing the demands of working from home, attending to your family life, and managing your child's education. We'll discuss how to make a plan, where to leave some wiggle room, and how to foster independence for kids who need a lot of parental attention and guidance during the work day.

For Adults ONLY
Eventbrite registration is required.
This program is sponsored by the Santa Clara City Library Foundation and Friends

Kids Vote for President!

We want to give our youth a chance to participate in the 2020 Presidential Election. Back in March, our community of kids voted in the California primaries where they chose their favorite book character to move onto the General Presidential Election. Now is the time for kids to select their choice for President. Candidates have been narrowed down to 7 candidates and include: Hermoine Granger, Princess Tsunamiu, Greg Hefley, Dog Man, Harry Potter, Voldermort and Elsa. Kids can either mail-in their completed ballot to Central Park Library, 2635 Homestead Rd. Santa Clara CA 95051 Attn: Youth Services or drop off their ballot in the Central Park Library's Book Drop.
