

ESL Conversation Club: Your Life in Five Years

Idiom of the Week:

Future looks bright.

Tongue Twister:

Double bubble gum, bubbles double.

Conversation Questions in Groups of 2 People:

1. If you could see into the future, what's one thing you'd want to know about your life in five years?
2. Imagine you could achieve anything in five years. What would it be? (e.g., travel the world, master a new skill)
3. Do you like to set goals for yourself? What are some things you'd like to accomplish in the next five years?
4. Do you think you'll have the same job, career path, or goals in five years? If not, what might you be doing?
5. Are there any new skills or knowledge you'd like to gain in the next five years? How might they help you achieve your goals?
6. Do you see yourself living in the same place in five years? Why or why not?
7. Do you have any travel dreams you hope to fulfill in the next five years? Where would you like to go?
8. Are there any personal milestones (e.g., getting married, buying a house) you hope to achieve in the next five years?
9. Do you have any financial goals you're working towards for the next five years? (e.g., saving money for a car, starting a business)
10. Are there any healthy habits you'd like to establish or improve upon in the next five years? (e.g., eating healthier, exercising more)
11. Do you think your relationships with friends and family will change much in the next five years? Why or why not?
12. Do you think it's helpful to reflect on your past experiences to plan for your future? Why or why not?
13. Do you think it's important to be open to surprise events and changes in life's plans? Why or why not?
14. How do you stay positive and motivated when thinking about your future goals?
15. Do you think it's important to find your passion or something you're truly passionate about in life?
16. How do you think you can achieve a balance between work, personal life, and your goals in the next five years?
17. Do you have any role models or people who inspire you as you think about your future? Why?
18. Do you think it's important to enjoy the journey of achieving your goals, not just reaching the final destination?
Explain your thoughts.

