

19 First Floor Panels (Margie Edinger Room):

Panel entrance will be through the children's area doors to the Margie Edinger Room.

10:30 a.m. | How We Build: The Art of Star Wars Costume Creation

The 501st Legion is known worldwide for screen-accurate costumes from the Star Wars universe. A less known fact about our Legion is that our members build, sew and compile these costumes themselves. Learn how we do it and be inspired to build your new costume!

11:30 a.m. | Thien Pham and Briana Loewinsohn

Join us for an awe-inspiring panel with Thien Pham and Briana Loewinsohn as they explore the theme of community in comics. Thien and Briana, best friends, and creative collaborators, will share their journey of writing stories that celebrate friendship and connection. They'll discuss how their real-life bond influences their work and how comics can be a powerful medium for building and reflecting communities. Don't miss this chance to hear from two talented creators about the magic of storytelling and the importance of relationships in their art. It's going to be a heartfelt and engaging discussion: you will laugh, you will cry!

12:30 p.m. | Charles M. Schulz Museum

Charles Schulz's Peanuts comic strip is among the most popular and influential comics ever. As Snoopy, Charlie Brown, and the gang get ready to turn 75 next year, join the Charles M. Schulz Museum to learn what makes Peanuts more relevant than ever. Special guests DJ Lance Rock from Yo Gabba Gabba! and Andrew Farago from the Cartoon Art Museum will join the lively discussion.

1:30 p.m. | Cartoon Art Museum

Join Andrew Farago, Cartoon Art Museum curator and author of Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles: The Ultimate Visual History as we celebrate the 40th anniversary of TMNT! This fun-filled presentation looks back at the cartoons, toys, video games, movies, and the original comic book series by Kevin Eastman and Peter Laird that started it all. Cowabunga!
